

It's All About Freedom

words and music by Paige Powell ©2006 Paige E. Powell Pub. Kinslow Music Publishing Co. (ASCAP)

tempo: 126

1. Happy ^E man, who's a musician ^B on the street
Just gets ^A by, but he plays ^B the music's beat Sings in the ^E sunshine, and loves ^B the life he leads Won't get ^D rich, but that isn't ^D what he needs

Chorus: It's all about ^E freedom
It's all about ^{F#} having time
Time to do ^A what you ^B really want to do
It's all about ^E freedom
Having ^{F#} room to breathe
A way to fill ^A your dreams that have ^B their grip on you
It's all about ^E freedom ^{F# A B}

2. Office admin, who was a true artist at heart
She got laid off, and had to make a brand new start
Now she's part time, but it's enough to pay the rent
And she's painting—that's how her free time is spent (repeat Chorus)

Bridge: ^A They say that hard work ^D never kills ^{Dsus D, Dsus D (quick)}
^D Paycheck to paycheck ^G pays the bills ^A ^{Asus A, Asus A (quick)}
^A And though ^A frustrations ^D could ^G explode
^C We'll work for freedom ^B down the road ^{DDD (quick)}

3. Every week, a man worked lots of overtime
He commuted daily to the daily grind
Now retired, with a good 401K
Now he's finally free for golfing every day (repeat Chorus 2x)
