Bridge: There's nothing like the smell of the ocean
~~There's~~ No matter how hot it gets, there's always a breeze

We might as well surrender to the beauty
Cause we're going to be here awhile
Maybe it's our subconscious psyche
We didn't want to leave this life of ease

3. Well, we might as well go back to the bar
And order a cold mai-tai
Cause no matter how fast you can swim for the boat
You just couldn't catch up to her
Just wave good-bye and say 'bon voyage'
Just cry in a beer and drink up your tears

3 Well, we might as well go back to the bar
And order a cold mai-tai The ship is shrinking on the horizon
The ship shrinks on the horizon and say "bon voyage"
Let's have a toast and wave "goodbye"

→ Cause we'll never catch that boat no matter how fast you swim even if you swim fast

→ face-deal

→ We might as well face up to reality
we're going to be island natives
We're going to be here awhile - Isle

3. Well, we might as well go back to the bar
And order a cold mai-tai
The ship is shrinking on the horizon
It's best to wave goodbye
Let's lie down on the beach, join the natives on this isle
Let's face the situation ahead of us
We're gonna be here for awhile
